

Australasian Wire Industry Association Training Award Criteria

Criteria

This award requires the applicant to address the following award criteria:

Criterion 1: Career and Study Achievements

Consider things such as:

- any personal or career gains you have achieved from participating in your job
- what qualifications you currently hold
- how on-the-job and off-the-job training helped you in your career
- what further training will assist you in your current job & career

Criterion 2: Communication, team and leadership skills

Consider any skills you have developed such as:

- effective oral and written communication
- your level of self-reliance and ability to meet challenges
- effective team participation
- leadership and promotion of your industry or any other things you are involved in
- your capacity to be an effective ambassador for your industry, community and Australia.

Criterion 3: Ability to represent your industry at a broader level

Tell us about:

- any knowledge or understanding you have gained of new developments and trends in your workplace or industry
- any messages you might have that could encourage others who are interested in entering the wire industry.

Criterion 4: Other pursuits

You may wish to include information about:

- your achievements in areas other than study and work
- your involvement in the community
- your awareness of current local and world issues.
